ANCHORAGE CONVENTION CENTERS

DENA'INA CIVIC AND CONVENTION CENTER

The new jewel in Anchorage's expanding crown, Dena'ina is a triumph of high northern latitude design. The natural light reflecting through the building is brilliant, the views from the Ballroom overlooking the Chugach Mountain range are dazzling and the Alaska Native artwork throughout the facility honoring the original Athabascan settlers of the region is stunning.

The 200,000-square-foot facility and its meeting rooms enhance the cultural experience both indoors and out, as well as provide the functionality and state-of-the-art technology expected from a premier meeting facility.

AN INSPIRATIONAL SETTING

The cultural heritage of the first Alaskans dates back 10,000 years. The spirit of the Dena'ina people is reflected in the stained glass murals, expansive open spaces and traditional carvings on display throughout both venues. Recognition of the Dena'ina legacy is also expressed in the designation of the Center's five main areas: spaces from the Ballroom and Executive Boardroom to meeting rooms and the grand 50,000-sq.-ft. Exhibit Hall are Dena'ina place names.
